We make the journey as memorable as the destination

Choose to fly in one of our Twin Otters or sail over on the Scillonian III, you can be sure that the crossing will be a memorable beginning to an unforgettable trip.

You can connect with the islands by plane from Land's End, Newquay or Exeter on flights that take from 15 to 60 minutes and approaching the beauty of the islands from the air can be truly breath taking.

If you would rather travel at a more leisurely pace, the ferry crossing from Penzance to St. Mary's takes around 2hrs and 45 minutes and gives you a unique perspective of some of Cornwall's most iconic coastline.

However you choose to travel, your welcome to the islands begins when your Captain says, 'Welcome aboard.'
